Coverage Summary

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN WHITEWATER

Primary Coverage:

- They base out of an Open coverage look, primarily Cover 4.
- They run 3-Sky (Strong/Weak) depending on pressure, some 3-Cloud
- They are a zone pressure defense and have shown 2/4 Combination Coverage

3rd and Medium

- Non-Passing Formations are good (Rhn, , Tnk, Reg)
- They like bringing 5-man pressures, but don't necessarily play tight; mostly zone pressures.
- They will cheat coverage away from a closed TE side
  - Trips Rt/Lt isn't great because they will roll away from TE giving them an extra defender (vs. Chicago)

3rd and Long

- Flood concepts are good
- They like bringing 5-man pressures
  - More 3-Sky (Strong) but have shown it weak as well
    - Trio Lt G 70 Quick Dbl-Drive
    - Trio Lt G (X6) 70 Chicago
    - Dbls Lt G (X6) 60 Chicago H-Weak
    - Trey Rt G 60 Chicago H-Strong

Oh! Oh! I do! I do! Go to http://www.old-maps.co.uk and follow these directions, provided to me by other Cornish listers:

Drym is a hamlet (only a few houses) BETWEEN Leedstown and Crowan (hence the 2 addresses).

Try this

Get the map which shows Leedstown and Crowan. 'Click! in the middle of them.

When you get a new map look bottom middle (sort of) you should see Trenwheal, Drym is above it.

Did it work?
NOW, I have part of an 1881 Census extract from Drym and I find several families living there, but no mention of the last name Boskanoe. Lots of Sampsons, some of them mine -- Richard SAMPSON b ?, his son William SAMPSON b 1 Jun 1792 who married Margaret HOSKINS; their children: Margaret, Richard, William and Mary. I show William b 1792 marrying a second time to Susan (unknown) b 1818.
Are these your Sampsons?

info from Ken Sampson

H, Baptism records have a number of Ann Mitchel's listed, but the closest to Sithney and the date was 'Ann Mitchel baptised 28 Dec 1753 at Breage 'dau of John & Ann'.

If this were Ann then she was 38 when she had baby William.

Richard Bosanko was a Crowan man. He was baptised there 2 Feb 1769 son of Reynold and Alice.

Here is what I know about her. Baptism records have a number of Ann Mitchel's listed but the closest to Sithney and the date was 'Ann Mitchel baptised 28 Dec 1753 at Breage 'dau of John & Ann'. If this were Ann then she was 38 when she had baby William. Ann Mitchel was born in 1750s.

Richard Sanpson was a farmer who married his cousin, Charity Wood in March 1786, but she died in January 1787, some nine and a half months later, whether she died in childbirth we'll probably never know, but it seems reasonable to think she did, so poor old Richard was widowed and childless at 35.

The parish register says 'Richard Sampson, Yeoman of this parish was married 22 Mar 1786 Charity Wood of this parish - They both signed. Following Banns. James Wood & Henry Odgers were witnesses [1889 copy of the orginal register] We know that he was living at Hawes (or Hawkey's) Croft (possibly now the little cottage called Higher Prospidnick Cottage) in Sithney for a while and it seems he had a relationship with Ann in 1791, when he was 22 and she was 32 or older and in Jun 1792 baby William 'a base-born son' was born.

They didn't marry so perhaps it was a short-lived thing, however it appears Richard accepted paternity and one wonders if he provided for him during his childhood, because he went to great lengths to provide for him when he wrote his will in 1812.

Ann eventually moved to Crowan and married a miner Richard Bosanko in 1796. It seems he took William in as his own and William took his name.

Together Richard and Ann had at least another son, Richard (and William's half-brother) in 1797.

Ann Bosanko of Crowan was buried 30 Jul 1831 aged 72-years (hence born, 1759) Where they lived isn't clear, although there is a Ann Bosanko, widow at Carsize in 1804/05 (Window Tax List)? However the only burial record for a Richard Bosanko is in 1834, long after the window tax. Could this be a mistake and Richard was away? All the best Ken

Dear Fayth,

RE: SAMPSON FAMILY.

Thank you very much for your letter and all the information you sent on the Bosankoe family. Especially for including all the information on the unusually named Dorcas BOSANKOE. I am amazed to hear that so many people have an interest in this family and such debates occur on the internet. I really must get myself linked up.

My main interest is anything which provides more information on the mother or maternal family of William BOSANKOE / SAMPSON. I have no information about him apart from the fact that his father Richard SAMPSON was baptised 1May 1752 at Crowan Church - the son of John and Mary. He married Charity WOOD on the 22 Mar 1786 also at Crowan. She appears to have died and was buried on the 8 Jan 1787. This is about nine and a half months after the marriage and one wonders if she died in child birth. Whatever the circumstances it must have been a tragedy, because Richard appears not to have married again.

When he wrote his will in 1800 he gave his property to 'his natural son William SAMPSON otherwise BOSANKOE', who was a minor and since he was 49 in the 1841 census was probably born in about 1792. We know that he 'took the name SAMPSON on inheriting Drym [the farm] in 1813'. I would be very grateful if you could let the 50 people researching BOSANKOE's know of my interest. It might be that they come across him mentioned in a will, for instance. Please note in my original letter I mistakenly called the son Richard. Richard was the father and William was the son. I have enclosed a transcript of Richard SAMPSON's will. Please do not hesitate to ask if you want a photocopy of the original. Thank you very much for sending information and please be in touch if anything crops up. Best Wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Ken Sampson

William Bosanko took the name of Sampson in 1813. Hope this helps Ken Sampson

Notes for Richard SAMPSON

Richard's wife, Charity had died in 1787, so when his son was born in about 1792 there was no reason why he could not have married his mother. (unless, of course, she was already married or not suitable). In 1798 he was living at Hawes Croft, Sithney, but when he received half of Drym from his father in 1798, I assume he moved back home. He inherited the other half of the farm, when his brother John died in 1802. He in turn gave the farm to his natural son William Bosankoe, who changed his name to Sampson in 1813.

Subject: Re: The Besanko Family (http://www.besanko.freeserve.co.uk/)

Hello Chris
I'm a bit unsure which email address to reply to, but hope his message reaches you.
Just a quick message as it is late at night here. Are you just interested in the Besanco family? I have some information on your Culley family.
Your "June Culley" was Jane or Janie Culley born circa 1862 in Budock and married Richard Thomas Besanco in 1882 - as you say. Jane was the daughter of Sampson Winn Culley, he was bapt at Mabe on 21 February 1837. In the early 1840's the family changed their name from Cullicoat to Culley.

Sampson was the son of John Cullicoat and Jane Winn, and his elder sister was Mary Ann Cullicoat. Mary Ann married Richard Nicholls at Mabe on on 28 December 1850 - these are my ggg grandparents. Their daughter Eliza Nicholls and her husband James John Bolitho came here to New Zealand in 1875.

The previously mentioned John Cullicoat was bapt at Mabe on 10 October 1802 and died 26 January 1886 at Trenoweth, Mabe. He married Jane Winn at Mabe on 16 March 1824. He was the son of James Cullicoat bapt 18 May 1760 at Budock married 14 August 1785 to Mary Collins. This James was the son of John Cullicoat of Mabe who married Margery Spargo 28 December 1754. This is as far as I go on this line. I have further information if you are interested on the Culleys and also the Winn family.

Welcome to the family!
Tony Rackstraw.

Apart from very heavy work commitments since July I have visited my sister-in-law and family in the London area twice recently and have taken the opportunity to vist the S.O.G. at the same time. The first visit was some 8 weeks ago and was combined with a guided tour of the library etc. but the second visit was just last weekend, (Sat 27th), where I took copies of the Boyd's index of Marriages for Cornwall and I am just in the process of compiling them into something I can forward to anyone interested in the Bosanko name, (it will be in Excel 5.0, 7.0). I also looked in the I.P.I.L.. list (1999 supplement), for emigrants to U.S.A. and found a James Bosanko who emigrated to Colorado in 1876 with a cross reference to Lois Wescott, " Naturalisation Records, Boulder County, Colorado", in Boulder Genealogical Society Quarterly, vol 24:2, (May 1992); vol 24:3, (August 1992); vol 24;4,(November 1992); vol 26;1, (February 1994); and vol 26;2 (May 1994). If this is of any use to anyone , (Joan in particular), the please help yourself to it. If you would like a copy of the transcripts please let me know and I will forward them to you when I have completed them. If anyone else out there has anything on the Bosanko name please contact me. Best wishes John Bosanko PS, Chris, I have more variations of the spelling of Bosanko than you do!! I was searching for a connection to my ancestor Mary J Besanko and came across your website. Under your missing Bosanko you listed Richard and Jane (#6 on your list). I believe we may have a common ancestor as I also have the same siblings listed for her. She married Thomas Richard Kessell and had at least 6 children including my great grandfather William Kessell.

If you would like to pursue this further email me at klurch@ubtanet.com

Hope to hear from you,
Jackie Loertscher

Subject: WALTERS/BOSANKO/SANDAY FAMILY TREES

Hi Kay,

Do you know if anyone knows anything on the following family:
Dorcas BOSANKOE died 8/5/1805 in Crowan Cornwall. She married Richard WALTERS on 25/7/1763. He was born on 19/5/1741. They had 4 sons that I know of and 19 grandchildren. One of their sons William born 14/7/1776 m Elizabeth JOHNS on 31/10/1802 and their son Richard WALTERS born 23/1/1809 married Ann RENFREY. Richard and Ann had six children and Vincent WALTERS born 25/7/1813 married Ann SANDAY in St Veep, Cornwall. They had six children some born in Cornwall, some in Australia and the last one Selina WALTERS in NZ on 19/6/1851. VINCENT WALTERS and ANN SANDAY emigrated to Australia sometime in the 1840s and arrived in NZ on 24 December 1848. Ann SANDAY also had an nephew who emigrated to NZ but I think this was sometime after her.

If anyone can help???
Thanks
Alison Walters

Subject: Re: The Besanko Family (http://www.besanko.freeserve.co.uk/)

Hello Chris
I'm a bit unsure which email address to reply to, but hope his message reaches you.
Just a quick message as it is late at night here. Are you just interested in the Besanco family? I have some information on your Culley family.
Your "June Culley" was Jane or Janie Culley born circa 1862 in Budock and married Richard Thomas Besanco in 1882 - as you say. Jane was the daughter of Sampson Winn Culley, he was bapt at Mabe on 21 February 1837. In the early 1840's the family changed their name from Cullicoat to Culley.

Sampson was the son of John Cullicoat and Jane Winn, and his elder sister was Mary Ann Cullicoat. Mary Ann married Richard Nicholls at Mabe on on 28 December 1850 - these are my ggg grandparents. Their daughter Eliza Nicholls and her husband James John Bolitho came here to New Zealand in 1875.

The previously mentioned John Cullicoat was bapt at Mabe on 10 October 1802 and died 26 January 1886 at Trenoweth, Mabe. He married Jane Winn at Mabe on 16 March 1824. He was the son of James Cullicoat bapt 18 May 1760 at Budock married 14 August 1785 to Mary Collins. This James was the son of John Cullicoat of Mabe who married Margery Spargo 28 December 1754. This is as far as I go on this line. I have further information if you are interested on the Culleys and also the Winn family.

Welcome to the family!
Tony Rackstraw.

To reply to the List please address replies to:

and I shall pass your message on to everyone on the List.

Notes for Richard SAMPSON

Richard's wife, Charity had died in 1787, so when his son was born in about 1792 there was no reason why he could not have married his mother. (unless, of course, she was already married or not suitable). In 1798 he was living at Hawes Croft, Sithney, but when he received half of Drym from his father in 1798, I assume he moved back home. He inherited the other half of the farm, when his brother John died in 1802. He in turn gave the farm to his natural son William Bosankoe, who changed his name to Sampson in 1813.

Information from Ken Sampson

KS

HI, Ann Mitchel was born in 1750s. Richard Sampson was a farmer who married his cousin, Charity Wood in March 1786, but she died in January 1787, some nine and a half months later, whether she died in childbirth we'll probably never know, but it seems reasonable to think she did, so poor old Richard was widowed and childless at 35. The parish register says 'Richard Sampson, Yeoman of this parish was married 22 Mar 1786 Charity Wood of this parish - They both signed. Following Banns. James Wood & Henry Odgers were witnesses [1889 copy of the orginal register] We know that he was living at Hawes (or Hawkey's) Croft (possibly now the little cottage called Higher Prospidnick Cottage) in Sithney for a while and it seems he had a relationship with Ann Mitchell in 1791, and in Jun 1792 baby William 'a base-born son' was born. They didn't marry so perhaps it was a short-lived thing, however it appears Richard accepted paternity and one wonders if he provided for him during his childhood, because he went to great lengths to provide for him when he wrote his will in 1812. Ann eventually moved to Crowan and married a miner Richard Bosanko in 1796. It seems he took William in as his own and William took his name. Together Richard and Ann had at least another son, Richard (and William's half-brother) in 1797. Ann Bosanko of Crowan was buried 30 Jul 1831 aged 72-years (hence born, 1759) Richard Sampson supported his son, William Bosanko and when he died he gave Drym Barton to him. William Bosanko took the name of Sampson in 1813. Hope this helps Ken Sampson

Dear Fayth,

RE: SAMPSON FAMILY.

Thank you very much for your letter and all the information you sent on the Bosankoe family. Especially for including all the information on the unusually named Dorcas BOSANKOE. I am amazed to hear that so many people have an interest in this family and such debates occur on the internet. I really must get myself linked up.

My main interest is anything which provides more information on the mother or maternal family of William BOSANKOE / SAMPSON. I have no information about him apart from the fact that his father Richard SAMPSON was baptised 1May 1752 at Crowan Church - the son of John and Mary. He married Charity WOOD on the 22 Mar 1786 also at Crowan. She appears to have died and was buried on the 8 Jan 1787. This is about nine and a half months after the marriage and one wonders if she died in child birth. Whatever the circumstances it must have been a tragedy, because Richard appears not to have married again.

When he wrote his will in 1800 he gave his property to 'his natural son William SAMPSON otherwise BOSANKOE', who was a minor and since he was 49 in the 1841 census was probably born in about 1792. We know that he 'took the name SAMPSON on inheriting Drym [the farm] in 1813'. I would be very grateful if you could let the 50 people researching BOSANKOE's know of my interest. It might be that they come across him mentioned in a will, for instance. Please note in my original letter I mistakenly called the son Richard. Richard was the father and William was the son. I have enclosed a transcript of Richard SAMPSON's will. Please do not hesitate to ask if you want a photocopy of the original. Thank you very much for sending information and please be in touch if anything crops up. Best Wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Ken Sampson

Info from Ken Sampson

H, Baptism records have a number of Ann Mitchel's listed, but the closest to Sithney and the date was 'Ann Mitchel baptised 28 Dec 1753 at Breage 'dau of John & Ann'.
If this were Ann then she was 38 when she had baby William.
Richard Bosanko was a Crowan man. He was baptised there 2 Feb 1769 son of Reynold and Alice.
Here is what I know about her. Baptism records have a number of Ann Mitchel's listed but the closest to Sithney and the date was 'Ann Mitchel baptised 28 Dec 1753 at Breage 'dau of John & Ann'. If this were Ann then she was 38 when she had baby William. Ann Mitchel was born in 1750s.

Ann Bosanko of Crowan was buried 30 Jul 1831 aged 72-years (hence born, 1759) Where they lived isn't clear, although there is a Ann Bosanko, widow at Carsize in 1804/05 (Window Tax List)? However the only burial record for a Richard Bosanko is in 1834, long after the window tax. Could this be a mistake and Richard was away? All the best Ken

Oh! Oh! I do! I do! Go to http://www.old-maps.co.uk and follow these directions, provided to me by other Cornish listers:

Drym is a hamlet (only a few houses) BETWEEN Leedstown and Crowan (hence the 2 addresses).

Try this

Get the map which shows Leedstown and Crowan. 'Click! in the middle of them.

Did it work?
NOW, I have part of an 1881 Census extract from Drym and I find several families living there, but no mention of the last name Boskanoe. Lots of Sampsons, some of them mine -- Richard SAMPSON b ?, his son William SAMPSON b 1 Jun 1792 who married Margaret HOSKINS; their children: Margaret, Richard, William and Mary. I show William b 1792 marrying a second time to Susan (unknown) b 1818.
Are these your Sampsons?
